

THE Episcopal CHURCH

September Sacred Ground Webinar with Presiding Bishop Curry

Presiding Bishop Michael Curry in conversation with Canon Stephanie Spellers, followed by two panels of Sacred Ground leaders facilitated by Jayne Osgood

Recorded Thursday, September 15, 2022

The webinar was recorded, and can now be viewed on the Sacred Ground website. You can also read about the event in an article from Episcopal News Service - "Church lauds success of Sacred Ground curriculum as new groups form to study history of racism."

The Sacred Ground team would like to wholeheartedly thank the team of panelists who spoke following the presiding bishop's remarks, and to thank Jayne Osgood for her skilled facilitation.

Jill Henderson and Therese Carmona – Diocese of San Diego
Co-Chairs of the Diocesan Racial Justice and Reconciliation Task Force

Lesley Dean and Noelle Ptomey – Diocese of Nebraska
Lay Leaders for the Nebraska Sacred Ground Ministry

Virginia Woodruff – Diocese of East Carolina
Co-Chair of the Diocesan Racial Healing Commission

The Rev. Dr. J. Lee Hill, Jr. - Diocese of Virginia
Missioner for Racial Justice and Healing
Jayne Osgood - Diocese of Washington, Sacred Ground Consultant

The following were links or resources shared during the event:

Presiding Bishop Michael Curry shared the Prayer for the Human Family, p. 815 of the Book of Common Prayer.

Becoming Beloved Community Where You Are 2022 an Episcopal resource for individuals, congregations and communities seeking racial justice, healing and reconciliation.

The Church Cracked Open: Disruption, Decline, and New Hope for Beloved Community by Canon Stephanie Spellers

Use the Episcopal Asset Map to search for Sacred Ground circles in your diocese or region.

Racial Justice, Healing and Reconciliation-related Legislation from the 80th General Convention of the Episcopal Church, July 2022.

Support The Episcopal Church's work for racial reconciliation, healing and justice.

In peace and hope,

The Sacred Ground Team

Sacred Ground - Getting Started